

CLINICAL SEXOLOGY

Develop your skills in sexology and sexual health!

Comprehensive 2 year training programme for professionals (60 ECTS)

CLINICAL SEXOLOGY (60 ECTS)

This training programme provides comprehensive and in-depth knowledge and practical skills in clinical sexology. It is designed for professionals working with health and wellbeing like psychologists, medical doctors and therapists. The training programme includes expert lectures and practical workshops by both Finnish and international high-level professionals.

TRAINING MODULES

Sexuality, culture, and society

Neurology and pharmacology

Cognition and learning

Therapeutic frameworks

Working with complex sexological problems

Disentangling sexualities

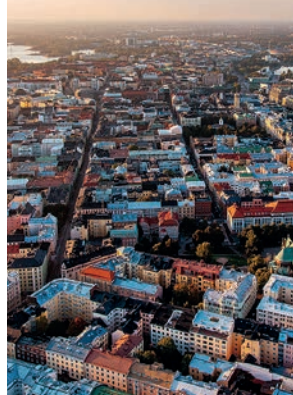

Sexuality related violence and trauma

Therapeutic work in multicultural context

Special needs and dependency

HOW LONG?

The duration of the training programme is 2 years, and it is designed to fit well with working life.

WHERE?

There are 5 intensive training periods in Helsinki, Finland. Studies continue online after the intensive periods.

WHO CAN APPLY

Professionals working with health and wellbeing. The programme requires prior professional knowledge and skills on human sexuality. However, it is possible to apply without any prior expertise on sexology by registering to the preparatory course.

HOW?

Expert lectures by high-level professionals, practical training, clinical supervision, mentoring by Skype, reading and constructive e-learning.

PRICING

8000 € + VAT 24%

Includes intensive periods, training materials, online training, clinical supervision and mentoring (60 ECTS = 1600 hours). Travel and accommodation costs are not included.

SUPERVISION SERVICES AND TRAINING

Sexpo provides professional training, consulting and supervision. Relationships, sexuality and therapeutic work frame is our field of expertise. Contact our team of training for further information: koulutus@sexpo.fi

Apply for training:
www.sexpo.fi/koulutus

Sexpo is the leading training organisation on sexology in Finland. We have been training new generations of sexologists and sex educators for 50 years.

Our mission is to promote sexual wellbeing, and to improve everyone's possibilities in leading fulfilling and balanced sex-lives. We work for sexual freedom, equality and realisation of sexual rights, and we believe in building positive and open sexual culture for everyone. Contact: koulutus@sexpo.fi